(Workshop 12.30-1.30pm)

Kings Court
33 King Street
Blackburn
BB2 2DH

If you want to develop your career in the music business, don't miss this great opportunity to receive valuable advice from music industry experts.

Hive Network are offering a limited number of FREE music client surgeries. If you have attended our music events before and need to know more, and if you are already working in the industry or aspiring to develop your music business, we can provide expert advice on subjects including: marketing, promotion, publishing, contracts, production, artist representation & management, plus much more from current industry practitioners including:

Rebecca Boulton (Prime Management – manager of New Order)

Pete Jenkinson (Music is Ours & Record Label Services)

Morris Stemp (Musicians Union)

Mike Wilson (Business Link: Northwest – Digital & Creative, Team Leader)

There will also be representatives from North West Vision & Media (NWV&M), Business Link North West (BL: NW), and Lancashire County Council's Creative Lancashire team, to tell you more about the support for music industry professionals in your area.

There will also be an opportunity on the day to attend a workshop presentation from the Musicians Union, NWV&M and BL:NW, also be available to those not attending surgeries.

To apply for one of our free 1 hour sessions with our advisors or to reserve your place on the workshop please forward a brief summary of what you would like to discuss together with a current CV (if available), to: emg@creativelancashire.org or call 07969 090838.

This Hive event is funded by Arts Council England, Business Link and North West Vision & Media, and facilitated through the Creative Lancashire team, a Lancashire County Council creative business development initiative.
